Tour itinerary

Day 1 Depart Heathrow

Your overnight flight travels to Buenos Aires via Sao Paulo.
Meals: In-flight.

Day 2 Buenos Aires

After your flight lands this morning, the rest of the day is free to settle in to your central hotel and venture into Buenos Aires.
Meals: In-flight. Hotel: Americas Tower.

Day 3 Buenos Aires

On a half day tour this morning, you'll see the Cathedral and the Casa Rosada, the colourful port district of La Boca and the impressive Recoleta Cemetery where Eva Peron is buried.
Meals: Breakfast. Hotel: Americas Tower.

Day 4 Buenos Aires to Ushuaia

This morning you'll fly to Ushuaia, on the legendary island of Tierra Del Fuego; the world's most southerly city in a spectacularly setting between mountain and the southern ocean. You will arrive early evening.
Meals: Breakfast. Hotel: Las Lenguas.

Day 5 Ushuaia

This morning you'll cruise the Beagle Channel on a catamaran, past the estancias built by the first settlers and the historic lighthouse Les Eclaireurs; the inspiration for Jules Verne's novel The Lighthouse at the End of the World.

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| 1 Buenos Aires tango | 4 Fur seals, Beagle Channel |
| 2 Lighthouse, Beagle Channel Ushuaia | 5 Perito Moreno glacier |
| 3 Condor, El Calafate | |

On the way back, you'll pass small islands, home to noisy communities of seals, sea lions, cormorants and giant petrels.

This afternoon visit the Lapataia National Park, you'll learn of the island's history while viewing the incredible natural scenery and watching for beavers. Back in Ushuaia, you'll have plenty of time to explore the centre, shop for souvenirs or visit one of the interesting museums.

Meals: Breakfast. Hotel: Las Lenguas.

Day 6 Ushuaia to El Calafate

Today you'll fly to El Calafate which borders the huge Los Glaciares National Park in the heart of Patagonia; a land of soaring peaks and stunning glaciers. You might like to spend your free afternoon visiting the interesting Ice Museum.

Meals: Breakfast. Hotel: Kau Yatun.

Day 7 Moreno Glacier

A full day's tour travels through the scenic National Park to the Moreno Glacier. At the Corner of Sighs, you'll get your first full view of the glacier, watch out for red and grey foxes, guanaco deer, armadillos, flamingos, pumas, mountain lions and condors en route. The Perito Moreno glacier is 30km long and towers 70ms above the walkways. You'll hear it creak and groan, and may witness a "desprendimiento", a huge chunk of ice breaking off and crashing into the water below.

Meals: Breakfast. Hotel: Kau Yatun.

Day 8 El Calafate

Today is a free day to choose your Patagonia adventure. You might like to take a boat tour on Lake Argentino to the Upsala Glacier and past large, unearthly blue, wind sculpted icebergs and a walk to Onelli Lake. Perhaps experience the pioneer way of life with a visit to a traditional Patagonian estancia, or take in the wilderness from another perspective on a horse ride like a true gaucho, mountain biking or trekking through the magnificent silent landscapes.

Meals: Breakfast. Hotel: Kau Yatun.

Day 9 El Calafate to Buenos Aires

After a free morning, you'll fly to Buenos Aires this afternoon.

Meals: Breakfast. Hotel: Americas Tower.

Day 10 Buenos Aires

Whether you want to head down to the Puerto Madero port development or hang out in the cafés, shops and bars of the bohemian San Telmo district, today, it's up to you.

Meals: Breakfast. Hotel: Americas Tower.

Day 11 Depart Buenos Aires

Enjoy your last morning sightseeing in Buenos Aires before your return flight, via Sao Paulo, this afternoon.

Meals: Breakfast, In-flight.

Day 12 Arrive Heathrow

Your flight lands this afternoon.

Meals: In-flight.
